

The MSA/Pro Football Alumni Sporting Clays Charity Classic

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2022 | SEVEN SPRINGS MOUNTAIN RESORT

— Benefiting The Woodlands Foundation —

On September 27, 2022, MSA – The Safety Company will once again be teaming up with Pro Football Alumni to host their annual Sporting Clays Charity Classic to support the Woodlands Foundation. The day starts with registration and breakfast, followed by an inspiring keynote address by Pro Football Alum John Banaszak. Then after a quick safety briefing, it's off to the golf carts for a 100-target round at one of the best sporting clays courses in the country. Lunch is then served on the deck of the clubhouse followed by group photos with John Banaszak for every team. Trophies will be awarded and a prize drawing will be held that includes many great items like shotguns, hunting equipment and outdoor gear.

Honorary Chair: Eleni Lucido – VP & GM, United States & Canada MSA – The Safety Company

Event Chair: Todd Kalis – Executive Director Huddle Up for Kids Foundation

Keynote Speaker: John Banaszak – Pro Football Alumnus

The Keynote Speaker

John Banaszak was an American football coach and player. He was formerly the head football coach at Robert Morris University. John played in the National Football League with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1975 to 1981. John is a three-time Super Bowl Champion. He was a starter at right defensive end for the Steelers in Super Bowl XIII and Super Bowl XIV. John later played in the United States Football League (USFL), winning a championship as a starting defensive end for the Michigan Panthers in 1983. He also served in the United States Marine Corps on active duty from 1969-1971. John was inducted into the Marine Corps Sports Hall of Fame in 2017. In 1995, he became defensive coordinator of the Washington & Jefferson College football team. John was promoted to head coach in 1999. In 2003 he left the college as the third-most winning coach in school history to join head coach Joe Walton at Robert Morris University as an assistant coach. In 2013 he was named head football coach and remained until his retirement in 2017.
